As a seasoned corporate commercial lawyer with a particular focus on mergers and acquisitions, Stephen Cheifetz assists clients with acquisitions, financing needs, shareholders arrangements, tax matters and general corporate advice. But it is his ability to make difficulties disappear which ensures his clients have their opportunities or issues resolved to their total satisfaction.

Stephen has exposure to a wide variety of industries including manufacturing, IT, agriculture and internet businesses. He focuses on incorporation, forming of partnerships, the purchase and sale of businesses, shareholder agreements, reorganization of businesses, insolvency matters, estate planning, and other general corporate matters. In addition, Stephen was a sessional instructor at the University of Detroit Mercy Law School, where he taught Cross Border Sales Financing and Secured Transactions to students in the Canadian American Dual JD program. He also taught business law at the University of Windsor and he has lectured throughout the US on doing business in Canada.
